

Citizens from the following countries need a Schengen Visa to enter Denmark:

Countries marked in black: In these countries you need to hand in the visa application at the local danish embassy. You can find a list of danish embassies on this webpage:

<http://www.um.dk/en/menu/AboutUs/Organisation/MissionsAbroad/>

Countries marked in red: In these countries you need to hand in your application at an embassy that the danish government has a cooperation agreement with. On our website is a document including the addresses of the embassies you will need to hand in your application to if your country is marked in red. The document can be found directly beneath the link to this document on the Applications page.
